

BLIND BOX

ASSEMBLY DESCRIPTION

The Blind Box is a single piece tool designed to deliver “blows”, much like a hammer, to downhole debris. The B & T Blind Box can also be used to break the wireline at the Rope Socket, which then allows for the wire to be retrieved.

Please refer to the Common Tool Sizes Chart when ordering so as to best clarify which fishneck and thread connections are required.

